

REBEL LEGION

COSTUMING - CHARITY - COMMUNITY

What do you do?

We actually hear this question a lot! Since we're about fun, spreading the joy and magic of the Star Wars Universe and supporting charities. We can usually be found posing for pictures and providing "meet-and-greets" for event guests, escorting VIPs, and especially interacting with kids by bringing their action figures to life.

What sort of events do you do?

Rebel Legion members march in parades, raise funds for charity, appear at conventions, visit children's hospitals, support educational and science centers, as well as a wide variety of other events.

Where do you get your costumes?

All of our costumes are homemade, created by talented fans that know enough about costume and prop building to create some very nice costumes. Anyone can learn to make amazing, high-quality costumes, and we offer assistance to anyone wishing to join our ranks.

What are the requirements for membership?

The Rebel Legion is an inclusive, equal opportunity club. In order to join you must be at least 18 years of age. Due to issues of legal liability, the Rebel Legion cannot accept minors as members. You must also own at least one movie-quality costume depicting a "good guy" from the Star Wars films or Expanded Universe. A link to the list of Costuming Standards can be found on the front page of the website.

How do I join the Rebel Legion?

If you pass Legion membership requirements, please fill out our Membership Application found on the "Join the Rebel Legion" tab on the front page of the website

Want to know more

LOG ON

www.rebellegion.com

The Rebel Legion is a worldwide Star Wars costuming organisation comprised of and operated by Star Wars fans. While not sponsored by Lucasfilm Ltd., it is Lucasfilm's preferred volunteer Rebel costuming group. Star Wars, its characters, costumes, and all associated items are the intellectual property of Lucasfilm. © 2014 Lucasfilm Ltd. & TM All rights reserved. Used under authorisation.

What is the Rebel Legion?

We're an international Star Wars costuming organization that promotes Star Wars fandom while helping others through charity work and community service. Formed in 2000, the Legion now boasts over 2,500 members serving in more than 28 countries.

Are you part of Lucasfilm?

No. We're a volunteer fan-run organization. However, Lucasfilm Ltd. recognizes the Rebel Legion as the premier Rebel costuming group, and regularly engages our assistance with media and charity events.

Are you part of the 501st Legion?

Again no – although the Rebel Legion is known as the "good guy" counterpart to our Imperial brethren. While we are separate groups, we regularly work together, with many members belonging to both clubs. We also work with other Star Wars fan groups such as the R2 Builders Club, FanForce and more.

Does the Legion work with Star Wars celebrities?

Frequently. We often find ourselves working with and escorting the various celebrities that help make the Star Wars saga great including: actors and actresses, authors, artists, production staff and Lucasfilm representatives.

How much do you charge for appearances?

NOTHING! The Rebel Legion is a volunteer organization and does not accept payment for appearances. However, we support a great many charitable organizations (especially those dealing with kids) and a donation made in our name is always greatly appreciated. For a partial list of charities we associate with, please see the "Charities" page on the website.

How can I get you to attend my event?

It's easy – visit our website, www.rebellegion.com, and click on the "Appearance Request" link on our homepage. Once you've submitted the required information you'll be contacted by a local Legion representative.

REBEL LEGION

COSTUMING - CHARITY - COMMUNITY

What do you do?

We actually hear this question a lot! Since we're about fun, spreading the joy and magic of the Star Wars Universe and supporting charities. We can usually be found posing for pictures and providing "meet-and-greets" for event guests, escorting VIPs, and especially interacting with kids by bringing their action figures to life.

What sort of events do you do?

Rebel Legion members march in parades, raise funds for charity, appear at conventions, visit children's hospitals, support educational and science centers, as well as a wide variety of other events.

Where do you get your costumes?

All of our costumes are homemade, created by talented fans that know enough about costume and prop building to create some very nice costumes. Anyone can learn to make amazing, high-quality costumes, and we offer assistance to anyone wishing to join our ranks.

What are the requirements for membership?

The Rebel Legion is an inclusive, equal opportunity club. In order to join you must be at least 18 years of age. Due to issues of legal liability, the Rebel Legion cannot accept minors as members. You must also own at least one movie-quality costume depicting a "good guy" from the Star Wars films or Expanded Universe. A link to the list of Costuming Standards can be found on the front page of the website.

How do I join the Rebel Legion?

If you pass Legion membership requirements, please fill out our Membership Application found on the "Join the Rebel Legion" tab on the front page of the website

www.rebellegion.com

LOG ON

Want to know more

What is the Rebel Legion?

We're an international Star Wars costuming organization that promotes Star Wars fandom while helping others through charity work and community service. Formed in 2000, the Legion now boasts over 1,700 members serving in more than 28 countries.

Are you part of Lucasfilm?

No. We're a volunteer fan-run organization. However, Lucasfilm Ltd. recognizes the Rebel Legion as the premier Rebel costuming group, and regularly engages our assistance with media and charity events.

Are you part of the 501st Legion?

Again no – although the Rebel Legion is known as the "good guy" counterpart to our Imperial brethren. While we are separate groups, we regularly work together, with many members belonging to both clubs. We also work with other Star Wars fan groups such as the R2 Builders Club, FanForce and more.

Does the Legion work with Star Wars celebrities?

Frequently. We often find ourselves working with and escorting the various celebrities including: actors and actresses, authors, artists, production staff and Lucasfilm representatives.

How much do you charge for appearances?

NOTHING! The Rebel Legion is a volunteer organization and does not accept payment for appearances. However, we support a great many charitable organizations (especially those dealing with kids) and a donation made in our name is always greatly appreciated. For a partial list of charities we associate with, please see the "Charities" page on the website.

How can I get you to attend my event?

It's easy – visit our website, www.rebellegion.com, and click on the "Appearance Request" link on our homepage. Once you've submitted the required information you'll be contacted by a local Legion representative.

The Rebel Legion is a worldwide Star Wars costuming organisation comprised of and operated by Star Wars fans. While not sponsored by Lucasfilm Ltd., it is Lucasfilm's preferred volunteer Rebel costuming group. Star Wars, its characters, costumes, and all associated items are the intellectual property of Lucasfilm. © 2014 Lucasfilm Ltd. & TM All rights reserved. Used under authorisation.